INTRODUCTION

If you are looking to transform your look,
I suggest you start with your eye makeup.

By simply using different shades and colors of eye shadow, in addition to contouring and highlighting, you can make your eyes appear bigger, smaller, brighter, darker, and of course, give yourself that added pop that every girl is looking for.

Whether you desire eye makeup that is simple enough for running errands, wild and bold for attending a costume party, or sufficiently elegant for a wedding, there is virtually no limit to what you can do with your eye makeup. By using the correct tools and techniques, plus a little creativity and patience, you can master any look.

Your eyes are your palette!
